Proclamations. MATTER'S OFFICE, New York, Nov. 11, 1855.—Announcing our dependence on Almighty God, and my earnest trust that to His mercy we are indebted for continued peace, prosperity and general public health, while other communities have been sorely afflicted with pestilence and diseases, we are now called upon to return thanks and give praise to the author of our being, the protector of our lives and the dispenser of all the blessings we enjoy.

With these sentiments and in presence of emotion, and a The Proclamation of His Excellency Myron H. Clark, Governor of the State of New York, that THURSDAY, the 20th day of November next be set aside as a day of praise, thanksgiving and prayer, I call upon the people of this City to observe that day as such, with all due respect and solemnity.

Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid,

FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.
